

THE GAZETTE,

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY
J. C. HABERMACHER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
One Year, postpaid, $3.00

Entered at the Shiner, Texas, Post-office as second-class matter.

Wednesday, January 31, 1906

This office is located in the Printers' Mutual Fire Insurance Association of Texas.

Steps are being taken to erect a Y. M. C. A. building at Houston, thanks to the 'Post.'

Summer whiskey is an old and well known beverage, but now we are to have something new in the shape of summer oysters.

The Harris county grand jury charges the officers with being derelict in their duties and not enforcing the laws as they should.

The Gonzales Inquirer, judging from the last issue, is not in the least disfigured and is still in the ring, and so is the Shiner Gazette.

The oil field strike which started at Humble has now spread to Bateman, Sour Lake and Saratoga. The rangers have been ordered to Humble to keep the peace.

Senator Money has now taken up the fight against the president on account of his foreign policies. Between Tillman, Money and Culbertson the president is having a very strenuous time.

Justice is slow but sure in most cases. Captain Van Schaik of the steamer Slocum has been sentenced to ten years in the pen for criminal negligence in causing the death of 1000 people by fire in June, 1904.

The prospective candidates for the prohibition question as follows: Colquhoun and Brooks is a pro, and Bell is yet to be heard from.

The Morse School of Telegraphy can be entered up on the fraudulent list. The Gazette had a claim against the concern, and failing to receive any response to requests for a settlement, drew on the company, and this is the endorsement returned by the bank at Cincinnati: "The present corporation say they are not responsible for this draft." Mr. Shulkey is now located at San Francisco.

General Joe Wheeler, "Fighting Joe," passed over the great divide last Thursday from an attack of pneumonia at the home of his sister in Brooklyn, at the age of 70 years. The funeral took place on Monday, the interment being in Arlington cemetery. President Roosevelt attended the funeral.

Joseph Wheeler, a Brigadier General of the United States Army, was retired from active service on Sept. 10, 1900, after a long and notable career as a soldier. He was born at Augusta, Ga., Sept. 10, 1836 and therefore left active service on his 64th birthday.

He graduated from West Point in 1859, and was Second Lieutenant of the United States cavalry from 1859 to 1861. At the outbreak of the war between the States he became First Lieutenant of Confederate artillery, then Colonel of infantry, Brigadier General of cavalry, Major General and Corps Commander and finally Lieutenant General. Throughout that memorable struggle he conducted himself with conspicuous gallantry. He was wounded three times and sixteen horses were shot under him. Eight of his staff officers were killed and thirty-two wounded. He received the thanks of the Confederate Government ment for his skill and gallantry in battle.

Hallettsville.

Hon. R. E. Allen was a business visitor to Yonahum and Karnes City Wednesday, returning the next day.

Miss Olga Burrow of Yonahum was visiting her sister, Mrs. M. F. Nan, the past week.

A ball was given Monday night at the opera house by the young people in honor of Miss Lillian Nathan of Eagle Lake, who is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Max Landa.

Mrs. Connolly of Hempstead and Mrs. Palmer of Yonahum were visiting at the home Mrs. R. B. Allen a few days the past week.

Quite a number of our Hallettsville friends and political aspirants went to the picnic near Ponton's creek Sunday.

Attorney Will T. Bagby has definitely stated to his warmest friends here that he is in the race for the district attorney's office and will announce in due time. We are glad to hear of Mr. Bagby's final and favorable decision, as the 25th judicial district is just in need of a man of the height attained by Mr. Bagby in his profession as an able and upright prosecutor. His record as county attorney of this county will bear out the broad assertion that he is one of the best criminal lawyers in this judicial district. Whilst we are sorry to lose him as county attorney, we feel like placing him in a position where he has a larger field to do good work.

On account of a severe cold a week ago, we failed to send in our news items, and now ask the editor to kindly forgive us.

Teachers Fraternal Association.

The teachers' meeting last Saturday for the purpose of organizing a Teachers' Association was well attended.

Moulton was represented by Misses Glass and Hampill and Messrs. N. Wilson, A. V. Peterson and F. J. Butschek; Shiner by Miss Helen Smith and Messrs. W. R. Muir, Theo. Fertsch and A. G. Lichey; Moravia by Messrs. F. K. Bueck, J. W. Janecsek, F. Kubala and F. Schoppe; Sweet Home by Misses Annie Lay, Teresa Kavanagh, Estella Wendt and Mr. Chas. Wendt; Hope by John Granberry; Ezrail by J. P. Parr; Hallettsville by Misses Lizzie Hegel, Nannie Moore, Pearl Zutry, Della McKinnon, Cassie Ledbetter and Messrs. A. K. Jones and J. C. Haynes.

F. P. Guenther was elected president, Miss Cassie Ledbetter secretary, and A. V. Peterson treasurer. The fundamental principles of the organization, the basis for the constitution were passed upon. A committee composed of the president, the secretary, the treasurer and four members to be appointed by the president, is to work out a constitution and by-laws. Same are to be published for the benefit of the teachers and the public that they may become acquainted with the plans of the association before the local branches are permanently organized, which is expected to be done during February and March. The president will serve as organizer.

The teachers are very enthusiastic over this matter and are determined to make the organization a success. No doubt much good for public school education will result from it. Such a move should receive the hearty co-operation of everyone.—Hallettsville Herald.

Holland's For February.

The cover for the February number of Holland's Magazine is a remarkably striking one in yellow and purple showing Prince Pu Lun of China in native garb. In a copiously illustrated article, "The Way They Do Things in China," Gilson Willets gives an interesting account of his interview with the prince and describes at length some of the peculiar ways and customs of the Chinese.

"The Old and the New," by Gen. Orchard Stovall on the title page contrasts the commercial spirit of the New South with the sentiment of the Old South and presents some touching pictures.

Holland's is the first standard magazine to be issued in the South and the publishers state that their expectations in the way of circulation have been far more than realized. It is a credit to its founder, Frank P. Holland, of Farm and Ranch.
